

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 8, 1983

I welcome this opportunity to greet the participants in the 1983 International Team Matches of the World Senior Golf Federation.

The friendly rivalry of sport is fertile soil for friendship and understanding as the presence of golfers from so many corners of the world attests.

Best wishes to each of you for a pleasant visit and a successful tournament.

Ronald Reagan